

WHERE TO EAT AND SHOP IN CHICAGO

Dr. Beaumont Johnson has been kind enough to send us a list which the members and the wives might use to good advantage during their forthcoming trip. He hopes that your opinions about these places will be the same as his. The following list is reprinted in entirety:

Excluding the mundane, for dining in Chicago, here are some suggestions:

THE EXTRAVAGANT
(For those on a fling)

THE PUMP ROOM - Ambassador East - North State and Goethe -- where the elite meet to eat!

THE BUTTERY - Ambassador West - North State and Goethe -- for those who can't quite swing the Pump Room

IMPERIAL HOUSE - 50 East Walton -- Cuisine excellent, service superb

CAFE BONAPART - Sheraton Blackstone Hotel -- good food plus excellent decor of a past generation

EXCELLENT
(For a Fling with less Sting)

CAPE COD ROOM - Drake Hotel - Lake Shore Drive at Michigan -- Chicago dining at its best

COLLEGE INN PORTERHOUSE - Sherman Hotel -- Make reservations

GOOD

IVANHOE - 3000 North Clark Street -- Entertainment and dancing

FRENCH

JACQUES - 900 North Michigan -- good food, fair service

CHEZ PAUL - 180 East Delaware - Good food and service

L'AIGLON - 22 East Ontario - Fair food

POLYNESIAN

TRADER VIC'S - Palmer House - Extravagant

DON THE BEACHCOMBER - 101 East Walton Place - Reasonable & excellent

POLYNESIAN VILLAGE - Edgewater Beach Hotel - Moderately high

GERMAN

RED STAR INN - 1528 North Clark

GOLDEN OX - 1578 North Clyborn