STATE OF TENNESSEE

CHARTER OF INCORPORATION

BE IT KNOWN, that BLAND W. CANNON, M.D., JAMES R. GAY, M.D., NATHANIEL R. HOLLISTER, M.D., ELMER C. SCHULTZ, M.D., H. J. SVIEN, M.D., AND DONALD B. SWEENEY, M.D., all of legal age, are hereby constituted a body politic and corporate, by the name and style of CONGRESS OF NEUROLOGICAL SURGEONS for the purpose of promoting the public welfare through the advancement of neurological surgery by dissemination of advanced scientific knowledge; by the promotion and encouragement of scientific research; by elevating and sustaining the education of physicians in formal institutions of learning and particularly advanced study and training in neurological surgery; by honoring living leaders in the field of neurological surgery; by promoting mutual fellowship and good feeling among neurological surgeons; by cooperating with the other branches of the medical profession in all matters of mutual interest and advantage to the public; by directing the procedures and energies of the members of this corporation in the interest of public health and welfare.

The general powers of said corporation shall be:

(1) To sue and be sued by the corporate name. (2) To have and use a common seal, which it may alter at pleasure; if no common seal, then the signature of the name of the corporation by any duly authorized officer, shall be legal and binding. (3) Any corporation chartered under the laws of Tennessee for religious, charitable, educational, missionary, or other eleemosynary purposes, and not for profit, shall have the power to receive property, real, personal or mixed, by purchase, gift, devise, or bequest, sell the same and apply the proceeds toward the promotion of the objects for which it is created, or hold any such property and apply the income and profits towards such objects. (4) Any corporation heretofore chartered for any of the foregoing purposes, desiring to avail itself of these powers, shall submit the question to its directors or trustees at any regular meeting, or special meeting called for the purpose, or to any regular or special meeting of its executive committee, and if a majority of said directors, trustees, or executive committee vote in favor of applying for the amendment, it may then proceed in usual course to file an amendment to its charter. (5) To establish by-laws, and make all rules and regulations not inconsistent with the laws and constitution, deemed expedient for the management of corporate affairs. (6) To appoint such subordinate officers and agents, in addition to a president and secretary, or treasurer, as the business of the corporation may require. (7) To designate the name of the office, and fix the compensation of the officer. (8) To borrow money to be used in payment of property bought by it, and for erecting buildings, making improvements, and for other purposes germane to the objects of its creation, and secure the repayment of the money thus borrowed by mortgage, pledge, or deed of trust, upon
